Jessel Miller Team-Building Art Workshop

No Painting Experience Necessary | All Levels Welcome!

- This is not a paint-by-numbers course. Artwork and discussion are personalized for your team.
- Jessel begins the workshop with a 10-minute demonstration of simple watercolor techniques.
- The first half of the workshop we focus on a creative exercise designed to loosen people up, allowing each team member to contribute to a shared experience. Discussion follows.
- Lunch break 1/2 hour. See pricing sheet for refreshment information.
- The second half of the class, the group focuses on individual paintings.
- Once the pieces are completed, Jessel does what she calls The Big Reveal. This is a very exciting part of the workshop. During this discussion, we reinforce team building by pointing out how each member's painting reveals the individual strengths they bring to the table.
- Everyone leaves with a complete and unique piece of art.

Options:

- A print can be produced for the team with all the individual images. Delivered at a later date. For an additional fee.
- Art workshops can be repeated with different subject matter to further the team's growth and development.
- Workshop can be held at your preferred location or at the Jessel Gallery.
- Wine Glass Painting Workshop also available. Two glasses/person.

“Jessel is an engaging instructor who makes this experience playful and unforgettable!”
